• Payroll records	3 years
• School meal programs accounts/records	3 years after submission of the final claim for reimbursement
• Records of complaints of sex discrimination, and conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination, plus all responsive records and outcomes and training materials on this topic.	7 years

In the event that any federal or state agency requires a record be retained for a period of time longer than that listed above for audit purposes or otherwise, the record shall be retained beyond the listed period as long as is required for the resolution of the issue by the federal or state agency.

Employees' records are housed in the central administration office of the school district. The employees' records are maintained by the superintendent, the building administrator, the employee's immediate supervisor, and the custodian of the district records.

An inventory of the furniture, equipment, and other non consumable items other than real property of the school district is conducted annually under the supervision of the superintendent. This report is filed with the board secretary.

The permanent and cumulative records of students currently enrolled in the school district are housed in the central administration office of the attendance center where the student attends. Permanent records shall be housed in a fire resistant safe or vault or electronically with secure backups. The building administrator is responsible for keeping these records current. Permanent records of students who have graduated or are no longer enrolled in the school district are housed in the district administration office and will be retained permanently. These records will be maintained by the superintendent. Special education records shall be maintained in accordance with law.

To the extent allowed by law, the custodian of the district records may digitize or otherwise electronically retain school district records and may destroy paper copies of the records. Necessary records related to the Child Nutrition Program must be retained in their original form during the retention period. An electronic record which accurately reflects the information set forth in the paper record after it was first generated in its final form as an electronic record, and which remains accessible for later reference meets the same legal requirements for retention as the original paper record.
